

“TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND”

*He will live in the hearts of the friends he made,
And known always for the foundation he laid,
Because Goodness and Fairness never die-
They go shining on like the sun in the sky
Just as Honor and Truth endure forever,
Death is powerless to destroy or to sever...*

*So his gallant soul has taken flight
Into a land where there is no night.
He is not dead, he has only gone on to a brighter
more wonderful dawn.*

In Appreciation

*There are those whose lives death cannot diminish.
Their love radiates forever in the hearts of family and friends.
We felt that love in your thoughtfulness.
Thank you for all your kindness and support.*

Obituary

Mr. Earl Lee Davis, affectionately called "Big Earl," was born to the late George Davis and Lucille Brown Davis in Winston-Salem, NC on November 27, 1942.

He attended the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from A. H. Anderson Senior High School. He was a former employee of RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company.

Earl departed this life at Wake Forest Baptist Health Center in Winston-Salem on Sunday, March 8, 2015, following a period of illness. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Devoria J. Weaks Davis; a daughter; his grandson; and many aunts and uncles.

Those who survive and who will forever celebrate the life of "Big Earl" with fond memories, include his daughter, Syehilver J. Davis; son, Daren Weaks; grandchildren Donald M. Stowe, IV and Jadakess M. Stowe; his sister, Carolyn Hampton; two brothers, Willie (Sandra) Hampton and Ralph Hampton; his aunt, Ella Lena (Miles) Graham; a close family friend who was always there to help, Vickie Majett; Sister-in-Christ, Caregiver, "God-Sent" Angel and very close friend, Carolyn A. Scales; and a very close friend who traveled wherever Earl was to see how his brother was doing, Nokomia Keaton.

God is so good to have people in your life who love you!

"GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED"

*God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered 'Come To Me.'*

*A heart of love stopped beating;
Delicate hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us that
He loved you best.*
