REMEMBER GOD'S PROMISE

"I am always with you."

This is the promise of God to one and all...

To every heart that's hurting, grieving or burdened with pain,

He offers hope and comfort-

He offers caring and companionship-

He offers peace of mind-

God didn't say the sun would always shine on each day.

He didn't say the flower would always bloom.

He didn't say time would always bring us perfect happiness.

But God gave humanity a place to go -

A place where peace is always offered,

Comfort is always given,

And love is a constant thing.

God said I am always with you, and He is... ALWAYS.

THANK YOU

For the flowers, the cards, the words of comfort and all of the prayers that we've received, we thank you. Every act of kindness played a major part in easing the pain in our hearts.

We thank you again and again for being such wonderful friends.

May God bless you as we remember; "Blessed are those that mourn for they will be comforted." Matthew 5:1

OBITUARY

“Pop” looked up toward heaven and said, “Father, the storm is getting a little too rough for me. Now I’m tired and ready for that ‘better place’ that you prepared for me.” And just as our Savior rescued the disciples from the raging sea — He was faithful to rescue “Pop.”

Mr. John Henry Jordan, Jr., the first born son of the late Lillie Mae Riggins Jordan and John Henry Jordan, Sr., was born on February 18, 1931 in Laurinburg, NC.

“John Henry,” as he was affectionately called, was a dedicated and loving husband and father. He was a man of his word, always willing to offer a helping hand and faithful to the service that he promised to others.

A loyal employee at Douglas Battery Company, John Henry Jordan retired on September 25, 2009 following fifty-six years of dedicated service to the company.

He passed away peacefully on Sunday, January 11, 2015 at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Will; his sister, Rachel; and a granddaughter, Akia.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories include Annie Vivian Jordan, his devoted wife of 63 years; his children, John H. (Patricia) Jordan, III of Welcome, NC, Betty (Billie) Summers, Betty Jordan, Brenda Jordan, Patricia Jordan, Linda Mitchell and Angela Jordan; three brothers, Nathaniel (Alice) Jordan, Sr., Charlie and Charles Jordan; four sisters, Fannie Times, Elizabeth Davis of Mt. Vernon, NY, Shirley Brown of Atlanta, GA and Lucille Monroe; sixteen grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and many friends.

“For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but onto all them also that love his appearing.”

II Timothy 4:6-8
