Psalm 23 NIV

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
He leads me beside quiet waters, He refreshes my soul.
He guides me along the right paths for His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THANK YOU

Your comforting expressions of sympathy will always be remembered with deep gratitude.

OBITUARY

“When my feeble life is o’er, time for me won’t be no more, guide me gently, safely o’er, to Thy kingdom shore, to Thy shore...”

Mr. Parnell Monroe, Jr. was born to the late Parnell Muldrow and Elease Carmichael Monroe in Bowman, South Carolina on October 5, 1939. He later moved to Orangeburg, South Carolina where he was reared by his Aunt Dora Odom. He was married to the late Apostle Evelyn Monroe for 56 years, prior to her death in 2013.

Mr. Monroe retired in 1997, following thirty years of dedicated service to The City of Winston-Salem, Evergreen Cemetery Division. He was also a former employee at Wake Forest Baptist Health and Budd Services.

He enjoyed trips to the beach with his family and he loved to hunt and fish with his best friend, Donald Shuler.

Mr. Parnell Monroe, Jr. passed away on Sunday, September 6, 2015 at Silas Creek Rehabilitation Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina following a period of illness.

In addition to his parents and his wife, he was preceded in death by his uncle, James Felder; stepmother, Eloise Muldrow; his brothers, Pinell, Kevin and Jerome Muldrow; his sisters, Mattie and Carol Muldrow and Yvonne Jackson.

Those family members who survive and who will cherish precious memories of him include his children, LaWana (Ferman) Wallace, Parnell Monroe, III, Calvin (Katsue) Monroe, Elease (Anthony) Smith and Erik (Marchelle) Monroe; his sisters, Deborah (Lennie) Butler and Emma (John) Fields; his brothers, Lonnie, Joseph and Gregory (Lisa) Muldrow; sister-in-law, Overseer Elizabeth (Tommy) Nesmith; 18 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
