FEEL NO GUILT IN LAUGHTER

*Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.*

*You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.*

*So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.*

*Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, or a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.*

*For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever... locked safe within your heart.*

Acknowledgement

Thank you for every prayer prayed on our behalf and every expression of love and sympathy. When the winter of our sorrow is gone, and the flowers of loving memories spring up, we will remember you.

Our gratitude is extended to Wake Forest Baptist Health and Kate B. Reynolds Hospice and Palliative Care Center for the professional care and support that they provided. And we are especially grateful to The Christ Rescue Temple Apostolic Church Family for their generous hospitality.

BISHOP WILLIE DAVIS, JR., PASTOR/OFFICIATING

Obituary

“ My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart,
And my portion forever.” Psalm 73:26

Mr. Walter Mack Davis was the last surviving child born to the late Willie Mack Davis and Rachel Jordan Davis in Florence, South Carolina. He was born on February 29, 1928.

He had a varied employment history that included positions with Piedmont Airlines (Beechcraft) and Attorney B. S. Womble. He finally retired as a machine operator after over thirty years of dedicated service to Stewart Warner Corporation-Bassick Sack.

Mr. Davis was a faithful member of Christ Rescue Temple Apostolic Church where he sang on The CRT Missionary Choir until declining health limited his active participation.

He was a former volunteer with the Winston-Salem Rescue Squad. And he was especially fond of Flea Marketing, where he bought and sold his precious finds and he loved playing the harmonica.

Mr. Walter Mack Davis peacefully passed away on Sunday, July 26, 2015 at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice and Palliative Care Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina following a period of illness. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his four siblings.

Those family members who survive and who fill forever cherish loving memories of him include Annie Jackson Davis, his wife of seventy years; two sons, Roosevelt (Viola) Jackson and Dedric Keaton; his daughter, Louise Davis Heilig; grandchildren, Tyrone, Kennell, Valerie, Tonda, Keith, Delano, Vettie, Kevin, Tyrone, Craig, Trease, Shara and Urica; 28 great grandchildren; 18 great-great grandchildren; his brother-in-law, Leroy Jackson of Baltimore, MD; sister-in-law, Grace Davis; a special niece, Sarah McCall of Florence; extended family including Attorney B. S. Womble and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jessup, Ms. Barbara Rohem and Bishop Donald and Vickie Keaton and Family; and several other relatives and many friends.
