THE MOMENT THAT YOU DIED...

*The moment that you died my heart was torn in two,
One side filed with heartache, the other died with you.*

I often life awake at night, when the world is fast asleep, and Take a walk down memory land, with tears upon my cheeks.

*Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday,
But missing you is heartache that never goes away.*

*I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain.
Until the joyous day arrives, that we will meet again.*

OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE

You have touched our hearts,
Lifted our spirits and blessed our souls
With you kind expressions of Friendship and sympathy.

We thank you and wish God's richest blessings upon each of you for your kindness.

OBITUARY

*“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions”...
John 14: 1, 2*

Mr. Willie Liggett was born to the late Otis Garrett and Willie Mae Liggett in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on February 18, 1936.

He began his early Christian education at Shiloh Baptist Church, where he was in regular attendance with his family.

Willie Liggett was educated in the local public schools of Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County and graduated from Atkins High School. Following graduation he enlisted the United States Army and after giving service for his country, he was honorably discharged.

Mr. Liggett was employed by the Winston-Salem Housing Authority for several years prior to his 1998 retirement from the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System as a dedicated custodian.

He passed away at Wake Forest Baptist Health in Winston-Salem, NC on Saturday, January 2, 2016 following a period of illness. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his grandmother, Josie Liggett.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of Mr. Willie Liggett include Gwendolyn Timbers, a devoted friend of many years; his children, including a loving caregiver, Tonya, George (Cheryl), Mary, Willie Mae, Michelle and “Man;” his grandchildren, Atesha K. (Din) Grier, Daijuan King, Marquese Timbers, Jaina D. Reynolds, Carlos R. Carter and Shyann M. Timbers; three great grandchildren, Ephaim A. Grier, Elijah K. Grier and Esaias N. Grier; a faithful cousin and caregiver, Thelma Thompson; several cousins, extended family members and many friends.
