PASTOR CURTIS FRIDAY, EULOGIST

OBITUARY

Anthony Gerard Roseboro was born on January 7, 1984 to the late Brenda Kaye Roseboro and Alonza Lee Fletcher.

Anthony graduated in 2002 from Robert B. Glenn High School in Winston-Salem and attended Brookstone College. He was a dedicated employee for Johnson Control. Anthony loved basketball and old cars.

His infectious smile and out-going personality will forever be cherished by his father, Alonza Lee Fletcher; his son, Justice Wall; three sisters, Shawn (Harold) Brandon, Kenisha Roseboro and NeKeesha Dover; four brothers, Pecos Rosemond, Carl Rowdy, Andre Roseboro and Dedrick (LaQueeta) Roseboro; a special nephew, DeAndre Roseboro; eleven nieces, Kiyannah, Kaliyah, Kyah, Tatiana, Toriana, Destiny, Demyah, Tyshaun, Yasmine, Myriah and Amyah; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

Anthony passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, October 4, 2014. In addition to his mother, he was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Elizabeth Roseboro; his paternal grandmother, Dinah Fletcher; and his sister, Tameka Rosemond.

Our Prayer for This Life

Thank you, Father,
It is not how long we life that counts, but how beautifully we live that matters.

Help us to remember that it is the donation of life more than duration that adds eternal significance to a life.

We thank you for the treasured memories that will forever enrich our lives because of Anthony whom you have called to live and love with you.

Help us to make our lives more dedicated, more devoted, that we may through beautiful living justify in fruitful and creative labor the longer years you are giving us.

In the name of our Lord, your only Son, who was so young himself when he died on the cross. Amen

THE LIFE OF LOVE

the sun rises and I open my eyes with a smile on my face and love in my heart as life shapes my wings and God prepares me to fly
I cherish time with loved ones as we dance in the light being careful where I step and leave my print
I spread joy to those around me one day at a time the sun sets and I lay down to rest
through my legacy I live
MY LEGACY IS LOVE

Our Sincere Gratitude

There are those whose lives death cannot diminish.
Their love radiates forever in the hearts of family and friends.
And we felt that love in your thoughtfulness.

God gives us comfort in the form of good friends and we are grateful for your many acts of love and kindness.
