MY SOUL IS ANCHORED IN THE LORD

*Though the storms keep on raging in my life,
and sometimes it's hard to tell my night from day.*

*Still that hope that lies within is reassured
as I keep my eyes upon the distant shore;*

I know He'll lead me safely to that blessed place He has prepared

Chorus:

*But if the storms don't cease,
and if the wind keeps on blowing,
my soul has been anchored in the Lord.*

Bridge:

*I realize that sometimes in this life
you're gonna be tossed by the waves and the currents that seem so fierce,
but in the word of God I've got an anchor;
and it keeps me steadfast and unmovable despite the tide.*

My soul's been anchored.

My soul has been anchored in the Lord.

OBITUARY

*“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear nor evil: for thou art with me”... Psalm 23:4*

Mr. Dan Davis was born August 19, 1942. He was one of fourteen children born to the late Sam Davis and Flora Robinson Davis in Florence, SC. The young boy began his early Christian education along with other family members at Little Zion Holiness Church in Florence. He was later found in regular attendance at the Baptist churches in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

He was a former employee of Greenwood and Charles Construction Company in Winston-Salem and he was a certified Automobile Mechanic. His neighbors attest to his skills as a good back-yard mechanic as he often tinkered with their cars in need of minor repairs.

Mr. Dan Davis passed away at his home in Winston-Salem unexpectedly on Tuesday, September 30, 2014 and went home to live with the Lord. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy Davis; daughter, Jackie Davis; and nine brothers and sisters.

Those family members who survive and who will remember his quiet spirit include his daughter, Karen White; three sisters, including his caregiver, Earlene D. Lunn, Pearl Bynum of New York and Elsie (Lucius) Redden, Florence, SC; a brother, Jeremiah Davis; three grandchildren, Shawn Sims, Henry White and Terrence White; 13 great grandchildren; many nieces and nephews including Avalena Artis; a host of cousins, extended family members and many friends.

Our Sincere Gratitude

And we thank you dear friends for every kindness shown to us
