Obituary

Mr. Donnell "JT" Wynecoff, aka The Godfather, was born to the late Joseph and Nannie White Wynecoff on October 2, 1927 in Winston-Salem, NC. God sent an angel to bring him home on December 7, 2011.

Donnell attended the local public schools and was employed with RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company where he retired after 30 years of dedicated service in 1986. He later owned and operated "The Laundromat" on ML King, Jr. Drive. He was an active member of Goler Metropolitan AME Zion Church and a former member of the Stewards Board and the American Legion. Mr. Wynecoff was an Army veteran and served in World War II and was active in the American Legion.

He was preceded in death by three brothers: Joseph, Jr., Willie and Prelow; six sisters: Emmy Clymer, Louise Betton, Catherine Wharton, Elizabeth Oliver, Helen Judkins and Cornelia Howell.

Surviving are: his loving and devoted wife of 59 years, Dorothy Ellis Wynecoff; daughters, Dr. Debra Wynecoff-Ogden of the home and Constance (Connie) Smith of the city; 3 grandsons: Christian (Lauren) Smith, Garry Ogden, Jr. of Conyers, Ga., Timothy Williams, Jr.; 4 great grandchildren: Jordan, Chloe and Cydney Smith and Sophia Ogden; a sister, Doris (Robert) Thomas of Shaker Heights, Ohio and numerous special relatives and friends.

1952-2011

Happily married for 59 years.
A great husband, father, grandfather,
great-grandfather, brother, brother-in-law,
uncle, cousin and friend.
Loved by everyone.
Never met a stranger and had a welcoming smile.
Known by many as "The Godfather"

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me. For now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now. He set me free.

Acknowledgement.

The family sincerely appreciates your prayers and acts of kindness during JT's illness and our time of bereavement. We are grateful to the staff of Hospice and Palliative Care Center for the excellent care you provided.
