

GONE TOO SOON

- Jilchristy Dee

Your presence was a light and joy
We never realized would someday end
Just like the brilliant falling star
That curved 'round Heaven's bend

And though we cannot understand
The reasons God took you now
We'll do our best to accept this loss
To carry on somehow...

"Scooter", we can't bear to say goodbye
But you wouldn't want us mourning in distress
So we'll smile through these falling tears
Counting our time with you quite blessed

We will remember you forever
For you, our hearts will always have room
We loved you more than you will every know
You left us way too soon!

OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE

We thank you for every kindness shown to us during this very difficult time. We will never forget your kind expressions of love, friendship and sympathy.

May God richly bless each of you.

Obituary

“There’s no use in weeping, though we are condemned to part,
There’s such a thing as keeping a remembrance in one’s heart.”
-Charlotte Bronte

George Raymond McIntyre, affectionately called “Scooter,” was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on August 12, 1974 to the late George Roebuck and Charzetta Ann McIntyre.

He was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from West Forsyth High School.

Following high school graduation, George worked for K and W Cafeterias, Inc. (Coliseum Drive) and he later was gainfully employed in various areas of Building and Construction.

“Scooter” enjoyed watching football and basketball games. He was especially fond of the games that featured his Dallas Cowboys or the Tarheels of the University of North Carolina.

On Monday, March 17, 2014, George passed away unexpectedly at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish fond and loving memories of “Scooter” include his daughter, Tashema McIntyre; his step-mother, Mrs. Brenda Roebuck; a sister, Linda McIntyre-Jones; three brothers, Anthony (Wanda) Earle, DePaul Peoples and Charles McIntyre; an uncle, Roy Roebuck; a special friend, Angel Henry; lifelong childhood friend, Donald Bruton; several nieces, nephews, extended family members and many friends.

Unity Prayer

All

Dear Lord as we now gather near to mourn the one we love, bestow your understanding here and Your peace from up above. Surround us with Your love and hope and console us in our grief. May bitter sorrow be lessened 'til it becomes accepting peace. Amen
