MOURN ME NOT TODAY

For the ones I left behind. I want you to know what I had in mind.
I thought of you all before I died. I loved you so much, I could have cried.
He put out his hand for me to go; I had not time to let you know.
Mourn not for me today nor sorrow take; however, love each other for my sake.
Weep not loved ones, but be content. Our lives you know are only lent.
The grave is but a bed, you see; prepare yourselves to follow me.
In love we lived, in peace I died. You asked for my life, but God denied.
Family and friends don't worry about me.
I'm home with God, and there's no better place to be. –Unknown
