“Eternal Father, Strong to Save”: The Navy Hymn

Eternal Father, Strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bid'st the mighty Ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
O hear us when we cry to thee,
for those in peril on the sea.

O Christ! Whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at Thy word,
Who walked'st on the foaming deep,
and calm amidst its rage didst sleep;
Oh hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea!

Most Holy spirit! Who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
And bid its angry tumult cease,
And give, for wild confusion, peace;
Oh, hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea!

O Trinity of love and power!
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee,
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

Sincere Gratitude

Dear Friends,
Thank you for your words of comfort, your acts of kindness and all expressions of love shown to us during these very difficult days.

Obituary

*Any man who may be asked in this century, what he did to make his life worthwhile, can respond with a good deal of Pride and Satisfaction,
"I served in the United States Navy".
President John F. Kennedy*

Paul Jones was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on January 4, 1942 to the late Halique and Isabell Jones.

He attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and graduated from Atkins High School, Class of 1959.

He was a member of Agape Faith Church for many years.

Paul was discharged from the United State Navy after giving honorable service for his country.

He later attended Forsyth Technical Community College. And he retired from R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company after more than 30 years of dedicated service to the company.

Paul was an avid fan of the Winston-Salem State University Rams but the National Football League would find him a "fair weather fan" because he was only a fan of the winning team. He loved people and he loved to travel. Paul was a giver by nature, so he was a strong supporter of charitable giving. Those who knew him will truly miss his cheerful, fun-loving spirit.

After an extended period of illness, he peacefully passed away at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, on Monday, November 11, 2013. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Gladys Jones and his granddaughter, Desiree Jones.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish fond memories of Mr. Paul Jones include his loving and dedicated wife of 47 years, Quentillia Jones; his son, Paul C. (Renee) Jones; granddaughter, Krishanda S. Carter; grandson, Dominique R. McLaughlin; stepmother, Martha Jones; and many other relatives and caring friends.

Order of Service

Opening Prayer (In Unison)

*Heavenly Father,
you have not made us for darkness and death, but for life with you for ever. Without you we have nothing to hope for; with you we have nothing to fear. Speak to us now your words of eternal life. Lift us from anxiety and guilt to the light and peace of your presence, and set the glory of your love before us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*
