From the Heart

We thank God for a divine season of life shared with Ronald, "Twin." And we thank you, dear friends, for your words of comfort, your acts of kindness and all expressions of love shown to us during these difficult days.

When the winter of our sorrow is gone and the flowers of loving memories spring up, we will remember you.

Remembering Ronald

“To everything there is a season”... Ecclesiastes 3:1

Charles Ronald Williams, affectionately called “Twin,” was born in Los Angeles, California on July 21, 1948 to the late Ruby Williams Moyer and Charles Wilkerson.

Ronald was born six minutes after his brother, Robert Donald, “Twin,” and thereby we all became witnesses to their shining example of true brotherly love, friendship and devotion.

At a very young age, Ronald obeyed the call of the Gospel and joined the Church of Christ of Capernaum in Clemmons, North Carolina.

He received his early childhood and secondary education in the Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County School System and was a graduate of Carver Consolidated School in the class of 1966.

After high school graduation, Ronald, along with his twin brother, enlisted in the United States Air Force and completed a tour of duty which included 13 months in Korea. His service for his country ended in 1971 with a discharge recorded as honorable.

Ronald, the young man, began to accept the responsibilities that manhood brings and became gainfully employed by Stroh Brewery Company and retired after 30 years of dedicated service.

Following retirement Ronald, along with Donald, cofounded Williams Removal and Transportation Service. And he remained engaged with other people through his employment as a staff member of Show Pros Entertainment Services and Graham Funeral Home in Mocksville, North Carolina.

Ronald was a proud fan of the Washington Redskins. He enjoyed the fellowship that he found as a member of American Legion Post #128 and Camel City Bowling League. Declining health limited his ability to remain actively involved.

Following a period of illness, Ronald peacefully passed away from Wake Forest Baptist Health in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on Wednesday, October 30, 2013. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his twin brother, Donald; three aunts, Mary Dulin, Pauline Wilson and Margaret Ware; two uncles, Ernest and Alfred Williams; and a first cousin, Reginald Dulin.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish fond memories of Ronald include his brother, Michael (Lynn Davis) Wilkerson of Monroe, NC; his sister, Jo Ann (Pink) Merritt of Reading, PA; a sister-in-law, Jacquelyn Williams; three uncles, Willie G. Williams of Durham, NC, Richard (Lessie) Williams and Frank Dulin; his “money honey” devoted cousin, Jackie (Worth) McCloud; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and a multitude of friends.

*“Day is done, gone the sun, from the lake, from the hills, from the sky;
All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.”*

“The Last Request”

*Please don't say that I gave up,
just say that I gave in;
Don't say I lost the battle,
for it was God's war to lose or win;
Please don't say how good I was,
but that I did my best;
Just say I tried to do what's right,
to give the most I could, not less;
Please don't give me wings or halos,
that's for God to do;
I want no more that I deserve,
no extras, just my due;*

*Please don't give flowers
or talk in real hushed tones;
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God, I've made it home;
Don't talk about what could have been it's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs
especially the little ones;*

*When you draw a picture of me
don't draw me as a saint;
I've done some good
I've done some wrong
So, use all of your paint;
not just the bright and light tones
Use some gray and dark;
In fact, don't put me down on canvas
Paint me in your heart.*

*Don't just remember the bad;
For life is full of so many things,
some happy and some sad;
But if you must do something,
then I have one request,
Forgive me for any wrongs I've done,
and with the love that's left,
Thank God for my soul's resting.
Thank God for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me.
Thank God, I'm now at rest!*
