Takin' The Train To Heaven

Author: JILCHRISTY DEE

*I've found my seat now on the train,
it's feelin' more like home
As for baggage, we all have none, c'ept for love n' memories we've known*

*My ticket's punched and handed back, after searchin' my heart and face
I find it reads:*

"first class to heaven through Christ's atoning grace"...

*The train begins to slow down now
we're arrivin' at eternity
As heav'nly mansions come into view
Glorious as they can be!*

*So don't be filled with sadness! I'm with God now you see...
Awaitin' the day when you'll each take the train...
And you'll all come and join me*

Our Gratitude

There are those whose lives death cannot diminish.
Their love radiates forever in the hearts of family and friends.
And we felt that love in your thoughtfulness.

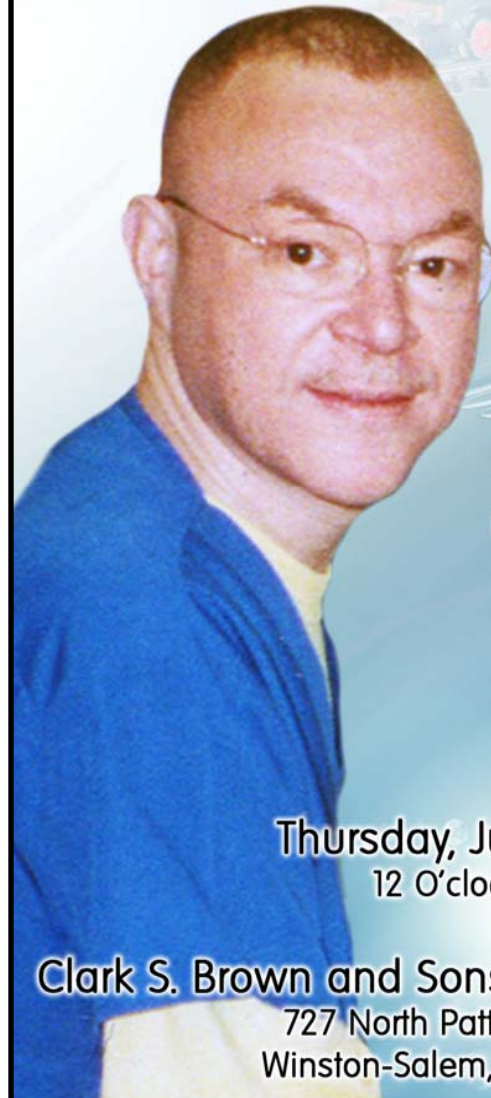

God gives us comfort in the form of good friends
And we are grateful for your many acts of love and kindness.

Obituary

*“Holy Spirit, breathe on me, until my heart is clean.
Let sunshine fill its inmost part, without a cloud between.”*

Mr. Sandy Jackson Brim was born in Forsyth County, North Carolina on February 20, 1958 to the late Raleigh Brim and Demetrius Dobson Brim.

Sandy attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and graduated from R.J. Reynolds High School. Following high school graduation, he attended Forsyth Technical Community College where he earned his Associate Degree in Respiratory Therapy. His compassion as a respiratory care practitioner was unmistakable during his 34 years of employment as a Therapist and Instructor at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center.

Young Sandy attended Saint John CME Church along with his family and there began his early Christian education.

Sandy was fascinated with model trains and he had a heart that was big enough to love and care for his family, his profession, his friends and there was even room enough to love “a man’s best friend,” his dog, Precious.

Following a period of illness, Sandy Jackson Brim passed away at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Monday, July 28, 2014. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Walter Raleigh Brim and his sister, Carolyn Ann Brim.

The circle of survivors who loved him dearly and who will remember him fondly includes his sister and brothers, David Lee Brim, Cathy Brim ( Donald) Samuels and Joseph Wesley Brim; three aunts, including his devoted Aunt Wilma Dobson, Lillie Mae Vernon and Thelma Ayer; twelve nieces and nephews, Emmanuel Williams, III, Artemas Williams, MaTokie Brim, Santini Brim, Preston Brim, Joseph Brim, II, Donnell Brim, Jessica Samuels, Donald Samuels, Jr., DaV’onna Brim, Shawn Brim and Sonya Brim; several cousins, extended family members and many friends.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made in memory of Sandy Jackson Brim to Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home, 101 Hospice Lane, Winston-Salem, NC 27103
