The Twenty Seventh Psalm

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?
When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes,
came upon me to eat up my flesh,
they stumbled and fell.
Though an host should encamp against me,
my heart shall not fear:
though war should rise against me,
in this will I be confident.
One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that i may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the Lord,
and to enquire in his temple.
For in the time of trouble
he shall hide me in his pavilion:
in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me;
he shall set me upon a rock.

Obituary

On Thursday, March 31, 2011, Minister Edna C. McLaurin exhausted all pain and suffering after a brief illness. Edna, 67, of 946 Taft Street, was born in Gulfport, Miss to the late Tilton and Ira Lee Widman.

She retired from I.H. Caffey in 2007. Currently, in addition to being a homemaker, she often assisted her husband in their business, E&E Trim Shop. Mrs. McLaurin was a minister and member of New Trinity Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two daughters, Mary Louise and Dee Dee White.

Edna is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 30 years, Earl N. McLaurin; two step-daughters: Pamela McLaurin Bares and Cheryl Renee McLaurin; her loving and devoted sister and caretaker, Tanzola "Penny" Fultz; three grandchildren: Carlos McLaurin, Chris, Jr. and Constance Polite; three great grandchildren: Tyson, Cameron and Blair; very special nieces and nephews, all dear to her heart; other relatives and friends.

The family would like to thank Edna's friends, neighbors and caretakers, Sharon Steele and Teneka "Lil One" Scales.

Acknowledgements

Whatever the part you played to console our hearts by means of flowers, food, cards, phone calls, or just a visit: to all of you for sharing with us the life of one we loved so dear from the beginning to the end.
