WE'LL REMEMBER YOU

We'll remember you in sunshine, it's rays warming earth and sky
We'll remember you in bird's graceful wings as they glide and flutter by

We'll remember you in the summer breeze and in softly falling rain
We'll remember you in dark storm clouds, the rainbow's picture frame

We'll remember you in blossoms and fields and in gentle streams that flow
We'll remember you in all that lives... all that brings life...that grows

We'll remember you in the mountains when golden leaves fall at our feet
We'll remember you when glowing sunsets cast sparkling embers on the beach

We'll remember you in the Christmas lights glimmering bright with joy and hope
We'll remember you when white winter storms cover canyon, field and slope

We'll remember you when we're at our best, keep your mem'ry close during darkest days
We'll remember you when each day dawns in these simple, yet precious ways

Moment by moment we'll remember you, you'll never be too far away
Because we'll keep you in our hearts each and every day

-Jilchristy Dee

THE COMFORTER HAS COME

“Oh, boundless love divine! How shall this tongue of mine to wond’ring mortals tell the matchless grace divine...”

Mrs. Yvonne Johnson Rush was born to the late Randolph Johnson and Mattie Lee Johnson in Greenville, South Carolina on May 12, 1936. At a very young age, she joined and was baptized at Lower Shady Grove Baptist Church in Woodruff, South Carolina.

Mrs. Rush was a graduate of Spartanburg Middle-High School where she was recognized as a sharecropper’s daughter who possessed the skill to solve complex problems and one who was committed to improving the lives of others.

In 1974, Yvonne married the late Rufus Rush and settled in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She then became known as Mrs. Yvonne “Rashidah Allah” Rush.

She was owner/operator of a commercial and residential cleaning service company and after many successful years of operating her business, she retired in 2010 and dedicated her time to her family and her community.

For more than twenty years, “Rashidah Allah” welcomed anyone with an appetite to her dinner table. Her life-long goals were to emphasize the importance of family, to teach the understanding of generational wealth and to inspire creativity in both her family and others.

Mrs. Yvonne Johnson Rush, affectionately called “Rashidah Allah,” was called to eternal rest from Wake Forest Baptist Health in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Thursday, September 24, 2015, following a period of illness. In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by three children, Mattie Lee Blair, Vivian Dorothy Ann Clark and Dean Clark, Jr.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish memories of a loving and devoted mother and grandmother, a good neighbor and a dear friend include her daughter, Korea McFadden of the city; a sister, Charlvsena Bradley of Greensville, South Carolina; fourteen grandchildren; forty-five great grandchildren; several extended family members and friends.

*Oh, spread the tidings ‘round wherever man is found:
The Comforter has come!*
