“Safely Home”

I am home in Heaven dear ones; so happy and so bright.
There is a perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing past,
I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder why I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illuminated every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me in the way so hard to tread.
And with Jesus' arms to lean on, could i have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, for i love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond earths shadows, pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remaineth you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, he will rapture at that meeting.
Oh the joy to see you come.

Obituary

Lucy Ann Stokes Lindsey was born September 28, 1923 in Rockingham county to the late Robert Douglas Stokes and Belle Martin Stokes. Mrs. Lindsey moved to Winston-Salem where she was a graduate of the public schools.

Mrs. Lindsey enjoyed cooking and baking. She was a loving mother and enjoyed caring for her children and others. Children were a joy to her, she loved to babysit for family and friends.

Mrs. Lindsey spent many years employed at Old Dominion Box Company. She was a member of First Calvary Baptist Church until her health declined.

On Friday, December 25, 2015, Mrs. Lindsey peacefully passed into eternal rest in Kernersville, NC following a period of illness. In addition to her parents she was also preceded in death by two daughters, Janice L. Purcell and Georgia L. Mills.

Those who are left to cherish special memories of her are: two daughters, Margie L. Graves and Jacqueline L. Hopson; one son, Danny Lindsey of Alabama; five grandchildren; two sisters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

May God Bless Each Of You

The Family of Mrs. Lucy Ann Stokes Lindsey

*Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be,
but there is a reason for it all beyond our power to see;
And may it comfort us a bit
to know the one we love
has found eternal happiness
And lasting peace above
