Mourn Me Not Today

For the ones I left behind, I want you to know what I had in mind. I thought of you all before I died, I loved you so much, I could have cried. He put out His hand for me to go; I had not time to let you know.

Mourn not for me today nor sorrow take; however, love each other for my sake. Weep not loved one, but be content. Our lives you know are only lent.

The grave is but a bed, you see; prepare yourselves to follow me.
In love we lived, in peace I died. You asked for my life, but God denied.

Family and friends don't worry about me. I'm home with God, and there's no better place to be.

From the Heart

Dear Friends,
When the winter of our sorrow is gone, and the flowers of loving memories spring up, we will think of you.

Thank you for your words of comfort, your acts of kindness and all of your expressions of love during these very difficult days of loss and remembrance.

OBITUARY

“Lay me at the throne, leave me there alone to gaze upon Your Glory”...

Ms. Charline Susan Galloway was born to the late Harvey Vessel Galloway and Janie Bell Mack Galloway in Forsyth County, North Carolina on January 9, 1944.

She attended the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from John W. Paisley High School. She was of the Baptist Faith.

Ms. Galloway was a machine operator for R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and retired following thirty-one years of dedicated service to the company.

She was an avid gardener and a great cook. She loved to grow vegetables and flowers and she was especially proud of her beautiful lawn and garden. Her recipe for chow-chow was a favorite to many and her favorite response to those who tasted it was; ‘it’s not hot.’ She was a giver, always offered a helping hand to others with a willing heart.

Ms. Charline Susan Galloway passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, June 17, 2015 at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem, NC.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories include her son, Tiko Vessel Galloway, the apple of her eye; her grandchildren, Cydney Crews, Tracy Pate and Antonio (Deannea) Pate; nine great grandchildren, Cameron, Jaylen, Traymont, Jacob, Jacara, Treyvon, Elijah, Antionette and Antonio, Jr.; two sisters, Bobbie Jean Jones and Maxine Galloway; three nieces, Tomiko Sprinkle, April Sprinkle and Yvonne Galloway; a godchild, Kamaria Miller; several extended family members and many friends.

Mother To Son

Well, Son, I’ll tell you:

*Life for me ain’t been no crystal stair.
It’s had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpet on the floor-Bare.*

*But all the time
I’ve been a-climbin’ on,
And reachin’ landin’s
And turnin’ corners,
And sometimes goin’ in the dark
Where there ain’t been no light.*

*So boy, don’t you turn back.
Don’t you set down on the steps ‘Cause you finds it’s kinder hard.*

*Don’t you fall now-
For I’ve still goin’, honey,
I’ve still climbin’
And life for me ain’t been no crystal stair.*

Time Will Ease The Hurt

*The sadness of the present days
is locked and set in time,
and moving to the future
is a slow and painful climb.*

*But all the feelings that are now so vivid and so real can't hold their fresh intensity
as time begins to heal.*

No wound so deep will ever go entirely away yet every hurt becomes a little less from day to day.

*Nothing can erase the painful imprints on your mind
but there are softer memories that time will let you find.*

*Though your heart won't let the sadness simply slide away
the echoes will diminish
even though the memories stay*

Order of Service

Gathering Prayer:

Heavenly Father, As we gather to remember and say good bye to one who was special to us, be the shoulder we can cry on and the arm we can lean on, help us to see through our tears that there is hope for life everlasting. So as we come into your presence to grieve her death, we ask that your Holy Spirit would be here to ease our pain. This is our prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen
