DON'T GRIEVE

Today I left my loved ones and as I go I pray, Lord don't let them grieve too much, because I've died today.

*Let there be no wailing echoing the halls,
the same halls that held laughter and answers to my calls.*

*I pray they all take comfort accepting the true way and listen when I tell them these three things today.
Love will be forever, a promise that will last.*

*So love me more than ever now my time with you has passed.
And last of all remember the glowing love to be,
when our eyes meet once again, for all eternity.*

OBITUARY

Donna Leandre Howell was born to the late James “Bubba” Howell and Cornelia Wynecoff Howell in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on January 29, 1958.

She graduated from the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and continued her education to become a devoted caregiver, laundress and caterer. She was a friend to many and always offered a helping hand and a willing heart to those in need.

Early on Friday morning, October 2, 2015, God discharged his angel to His garden at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston-Salem to pick a special rose. The angel chose our dear mother, grandmother, sister, cousin, aunt, niece and friend, Donna Leandre Howell.

Those family members who will forever cherish fond memories of her include her daughters, LaTasha K. Howell and Porshay Howell; granddaughters, Tiona L. Howell, Tyeka Wilkes and Tia Wilkes; great grandchild, Ta Liya L. Howell; her sister, Linda Murrell; Aunt Doris “Bobbie” Thomas; her special and only niece, Lisa Murrell; foster brother, Ravon Jefferson; friends, Thomas Moore, Kenny Wilkes, Pamela Collins, Elaine Shuler, Allen Elder and Frederick Moore.

The Good Shepherd

You, Lord, are my shepherd.

I will never be in need.

You let me rest in fields of green grass.

You lead me to streams of peaceful water,

And you refresh my life.

You are true to your name,

and you lead me along the right paths.

I may walk through valleys as dark as death, but I won’t be afraid.

You are with me, and your shepherd’s rod makes me feel safe.

You treat me to a feast, while my enemies watch.

You honor me as your guest, and you fill my cup until it overflows.

Your kindness and love will always be with me each day of my life,

And I will live forever in your house, Lord.

Psalm 23 (CEV)
