Elder Curtis R. Adair, Sr., Eulogist

*"When my feeble life is o'er, Time for me won't be no more,
Guide me gently, safely o'er, to Thy Kingdom shore, to Thy shore.*

Just a closer walk with Thee: Grant it, Jesus, if you please, Daily walking close to Thee, Let it be, Dear Lord, let it be."

Only One Mother

*You can only have one mother
patient, kind and true;
no other friend in all the world,
will be the same to you.*

*When other friends forsake you,
to mother you will return,
for all her loving kindness,
she asks nothing in return.*

*As we look upon her picture,
sweet memories we recall,
of a face so full of sunshine,
and a smile for one and all.*

*Sweet Jesus, take this message,
to our dear mother up above;
tell her how we miss her,
and give her all our love.*

Obituary

Claudette Fonville was born to the late Frank and Ann Thomas in Camden, New Jersey on April 28, 1955.

She was a graduate of Camden High School and Wilford Beauty Academy in New Jersey. Claudette worked for many year as a professional cosmetologist and in due course, she became a transcriber for the Camden Police Department.

Claudette moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina in 1998. She continued her education and became a certified pharmacy technician.

She was very dependable, easy to talk to, had a wonderful sense of humor and a couple of good dance moves. She will always be remembered for her beautiful and welcoming smile, her infectious laugh, good home cooking and her amazing alto singing voice.

Claudette was a faithful and dedicated member of The Church of God and Saints of Christ in Greensboro, North Carolina. No matter where she lived, she always made it to a local tabernacle to worship. She was a proud member of the Tri-State Mass Choir.

This loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend peacefully went home to her Heavenly Father on Saturday, September 28, 2013 from Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of Ms. Claudette Fonville include her daughters, Belinda Thomas, Michelle (Orlander) Roseboro and Sharon Fonville; her nine grandchildren, Javon Fonville, Austin Fonville, David Thomas, Justin Fonville, Brandon Roseboro, Matthew Thomas, Christopher Roseboro, Elizabeth Thomas and Summer Fonville; her sisters, Deborah (Alcides) Calderon and Diane Thompson; a brother, Frank (Queen Ann) Thomas; a niece, Angie Thompson; three nephews, Leroy Thompson, Richard Godbelt and Alcides Calderon, Jr.; an aunt, Janice Mapp; and many other family members and friends.
