

Obituary

On July 22, 2012 the Lord called one of His earthly angels back to her heavenly home. Deloris Anita Cuthrell Chaskley was born in Clemmons, North Carolina on July 1, 1943 to the late Charlie Cuthrell and the late Beatrice Scales Cuthrell.

Deloris received her early education from Carver Consolidated School in Forsyth County where she graduated in 1961. She earned her bachelor's degree from Livingston College. Mrs. Chaskley started her professional career as an educator but her lifelong passion to help others led her to the field of social work. She retired from the Forsyth County Department of Social Services after twenty seven years of service.

As a child Mrs. Chaskley attended Hickory Grove A.M.E. Zion Church in Clemmons, NC. She became a member of Goler Memorial A.M.E. Zion church when her parents moved to Winston-Salem. As a member, Deloris cheerfully and willingly served in several ministries at Goler Memorial, including Parent Body Missionary Society, Volunteer Ministry, Women's Ministry, F.A.T.E Ministry. Mrs. Chaskley also tremendously enjoyed Sunday School. Mrs. Chaskley was an active member of the Carver High School Class of 1961 Alumni.

Deloris leaves to cherish her memory two daughters Genita Chaskley Oakes, and Genene Lori Chaskley, both of Winston-Salem; two grandsons Allen and Alexander Chaskley-Oakes, both of Winston-Salem; devoted friend Gene Allen Chaskley of the city; special friend James R. Oakes of the city; sister-in-law Doris L. Chaskley of Winston-Salem; very dear lifelong friends Sarah C. Hicks, Faye O. Williams; and the "Lunch Bunch" Deborah T. Oakes, Dianne N. Smart, and Linda Young; a host of dear nieces, great-nieces and great nephews.

One Day At A Time

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry and should be kept from fear and apprehension. One of these days is yesterday and its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. Yesterday has passed forever beyond our control. All the money in the world cannot bring back yesterday; we cannot undo a single act we performed; we cannot erase a single word we said. It's all gone.

The other day we should not worry about is tomorrow with its possible adversaries, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. Tomorrow is beyond our immediate control. Tomorrow's sun will rise. Until it does, we have not stake in tomorrow for it is yet unborn.

That leaves only one day- today. Any man can fight the battles of just one day. It is only when you and I add the burdens of those two awful eternities- yesterday and tomorrow- that we break down.

It is not the experience of today that drives men mad- it is remorse or bitterness for something which happened yesterday and the dread of what tomorrow may bring. Let us therefore, live but...One day at a time

One day at a time.

Acknowledgement

Whatever the part you played
To console our hearts by means of flowers, food,
Cards, phone calls, or just a visit:
To all of you for sharing with us the life of
One we loved so dear from the beginning to the end.
