Obituary

Elder Glen Anthony Johnson, Sr. was born on September 13, 1948, in Winston Salem, North Carolina to Mrs. Belma Dobson and the late Rev. Willie “Jack” James Pellam. He entered into heavenly rest on Saturday, January 7, 2012, at Forsyth Medical Center. In addition to his mother, he leaves to mourn his beloved wife of 42 years, Mrs. Rita Littlejohn Johnson, his son Glen Anthony Jr. (Stacey) Johnson, and his daughter Joy Johnson (Ben Jr.) Coleman of the city.

Elder Glen attended the local public schools and was a 1967 graduate of Anderson High School.

Elder Glen was a talented artist who obtained professional training at the NC School of the Arts. His recent art work was displayed at Winston Salem State University and the Delta Arts Center. He was owner of “I Can Draw You,” and sold his art work at Cooks Flea Market.

Elder Glen was a gentleman of great faith. He was the former pastor of First Church of God in Christ. He served in the maintenance department and was a cell leader at St. Peters World Outreach Church and Center.

Elder Glen is also survived by his stepmother, Clara Pellam; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Robin Hughes of the city; sisters: Janie Brewton, Arthelia (Donald Sr.) Moser, Carolyn Canty, Regina Dobson-Johnson, Cynthia Pellam (Waymon) Bruton, and Jenny Pellam (Donald) Galloway of the city; sisters-in-law: Cynthia Littlejohn of Baltimore, MD and Robin (Eddie) Hood of Manhattan, NY; brother-in-law, Jamal (Millie) Littlejohn of the city; grandchildren: Armani, Benjamin III, Josiah, Nathan, and Genesis, a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives.
